DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

Group I,

Claim(s) 3, drawn to a composition comprising an herbicide.

Group II,

Claim(s) 4, drawn to a composition comprising an insecticide.

Group III

Claim(s) 5, drawn to a composition comprising a fungicide.

Group IV,

Claim(s) 6 and 7, drawn to a composition comprising an antibiotic.

Group V,

Claim(s) 9 and 10, drawn to a composition comprising a plant growth regulator.

Group VI,

Claim(s) 11-13, drawn to a composition comprising chemotherapeutic agent.

Group VII,

Claim(s) 14-16, drawn to a method of killing or inhibiting the growth of a plant.

Group VIII

Claim(s) 17 and 18, drawn to a method of killing or inhibiting the growth of a tumor cell.

Group IX,

Claim(s) 19, drawn to a method of killing or inhibiting the growth of an insect.

Group X,

Claim(s) 20, drawn to a method of killing or inhibiting the growth of a fungal cell.

Group XI,

Claim(s) 22-24, 27 and 28, drawn to a method of increasing the effectiveness of a cytotoxic agent.

Group XII,

Claim(s) 29 and 30, drawn to a method of increasing the effectiveness of a chemotherapeutic agent.

As evidenced by Stunkel et al. (US 4,737,521) compositions comprising a ectophosphatase inhibitor (suramin) and cytotoxic agent set forth in Table 1 (eg. cottonseed oil and castor oil) are known (column 3, lines 58-68). Therefore there is no special technical feature uniting all the claims.

Each of Groups I-VI (compositions) require a structure of an ectophosphatase inhibitory and a cytotoxic compound which is not required for the others. Each of Groups VII-XII (methods) do not require the use a structure of an ectophosphatase inhibitory and a cytotoxic compound which is not required by the others.

If applicant elect any of groups I-VI claims 1, 2 and 8, drawn to a cytotoxic composition comprising an ectophosphatase inhibitor of Formula I-XX will be examined with the elected invention.

If applicant elect any of Groups I-V, VII or IX-XII, Applicants are further required to elect a single cytotoxic agent in Table 1 and a single ectophosphatase inhibitor selected from Formula I-XX.

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In order for more than one species to be examined, the appropriate additional examination fees must be paid. The species are as follows:

Cytotoxic agents which are contained in Table 1.

Ectophosphatase inhibitor of Formula I-XX.

The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

The ectophosphatase inhibitor and cytotoxic agent comprise the composition.

The following claim(s) are generic: none.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The cytotoxic agents include different chemical classes and structures with have different functions.

If applicant elect any of Groups VI or VIII, Applicants are further required to elect a single cytotoxic agent in Table 3 and a single ectophosphatase inhibitor selected from Formula I-XX.

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In order for more than one species to be examined, the appropriate additional examination fees must be paid. The species are as follows:

Cytotoxic agents which are contained in Table 3.

Ectophosphatase inhibitor of Formula I-XX.

The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

The ectophosphatase inhibitor and cytotoxic agent comprise the composition.

The following claim(s) are generic: none.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The cytotoxic agents include different chemical classes and structures with have different modes of action.

A telephone call was made to Mark Wilson on March 13, 2008 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected invention.

If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable upon the elected invention.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and the product claims are subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be considered for rejoinder.

All claims directed to a nonelected process invention must require all the limitations of an allowable product claim for that process invention to be rejoined.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103 and 112. Until all claims to the elected product are found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowable product claim will not be rejoined. See MPEP § 821.04(b). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution to require the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to DANIELLE SULLIVAN whose telephone number is (571)270-3285. The examiner can normally be reached on 7:30 AM - 5:00 PM Mon-Thur EST.
